PERSONAL PROPERTY POLICY

Help for non-English speakers

If you need help to understand this policy, please contact the office.

PURPOSE

To explain Dorset's policy in relation to personal property and to ensure that special or valuable items of personal property are not brought to school.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all school activities, including camps and excursions.

POLICY

Dorset understands that staff and/or students may sometimes like to bring items of personal property to school.

The Department of Education and Training does not have insurance for personal property of staff, students, and visitors. does not take responsibility for items of personal property that are lost, stolen or damaged at school or during school activities. Damage to personal property brought to school is the responsibility of Dorset the owner of that property.

Dorset encourages staff and students not to bring items of value to school, or to obtain appropriate insurance for such items.

If students bring items of value to school, staff may store them securely until the end of the day, when the items may be collected by the student and/or parent.

COMMUNICATION

This policy will be communicated to our school community in the following ways:

- Annual reminders in our school newsletter
- Available publicly on our school's website
- Included in staff handbook/manual
